The affiliation status is valid for the calendar year, and the fee is non-reimbursable. Failure to return borrowed materials or to pay invoices in a timely fashion will result in cancellation of the affiliation status. Due to licensing restrictions, affiliates are not allowed off campus access to any electronic resources purchased by UF. In compliance with the University of Florida's policy of academic honesty, librarians will not perform mediated searches for any affiliate in connection with a classroom assignment. Please contact a librarian if you have any questions about the University of Florida's policy of academic honesty.
